inter-fer started the interview by asking Stotler why the event was called "Irving Inspired."

"I'm inspired every day by the men and women who are in this room, by employees who work for the city, for the businesses that make Irving home," Stotler said.

"Irving has 12 Fortune 1,000 companies headquartered here," Watson said.

"Irving is the headquarters of headquarters. It's first in corporate headquarters leader of populations less than 300,000. Overall, Irving is eighth in corporate headquarters, and your peers are New York and Chicago." "We're very fortunate," Stotler said. "Irving is a city that's made up of neighborhoods. This year alone, there were over 550 new single family homes built."

Gymnasts flip in Irving

By Aubrey Turner
Irving-Gymnasts from around the world gathered for the Texas Prime Meet hosted in the Irving Convention Center, Jan. 17-19. Presented by Texas Dreams Gymnastics in Coppell, the meet offered competition in a variety of events as well as a high-level "Legends Cup" competition with star gymnasts leading the teams.

"I am a level seven gymnast. I do vault, floor, beam, and bars," Brinkley Cocher, a 12-year-old gymnast from Lub-
